

Michelle Ganzer, CPP

Payroll Tax and Compliance Manager at Johnson Controls Ambassador, American Payroll Association

Michelle has 30+ years of leadership experience specializing in payroll, process improvements/best practice, tax, compliance, internal controls, and mergers/acquisitions. She expanded her footprint as a Global strategic leader with experience in global payroll system selection/conversions, global mobility/accounting projects and global expense reimbursement development. Michelle is passionate about payroll, education, community involvement and mentoring others. Michelle works in Milwaukee, WI for Johnson Controls as Payroll Tax and Compliance Manager.

Michelle earned her Certified Payroll Professional designation in 1992 and started the Greater Milwaukee APA chapter in 1994. Currently, Michelle serves as an APA Ambassador, a member of the National Speakers' Bureau, Hotline Referral Service, CHAMPS and Strategic Payroll Leadership Task Force, Best Practice. Previously, Michelle served National APA as Vice President (4 years), Board of Advisor (4 years), Chair of Grant committee and member of the Shared Service, Direct Deposit and Manufacturing committees. Locally, Michelle currently volunteers for Greater Milwaukee APA on the Executive board, Chair of the National Payroll Week, Community involvement, Speaker committees and member of Educational, COTY, Bylaws and Statewide committee. Michelle was honored to receive the recognition of 2012 Payroll Women of the Year. She received three Best Practice Prism awards (2003, 2011, 2015).