

Sally Hilton, CPP
Director of Education Services
American Payroll Association

Sally Hilton has over three decades of payroll, benefits, human resources, and training experience. She works for the APA in Des Moines, Iowa, where she oversees the Education Division. Her responsibilities include directing the development and administration of APA learning programs including classroom courses, virtual classes, and webinars.

Sally also processes the payroll for APA and has been a Certified Payroll Professional since 2001.