

Catherine Honey,
VP, Solutions Consulting
Safeguard Global

Catherine joined Safeguard Global in 2017 as VP, Strategic Partner Relations, where she was responsible for developing relationships and managing both formal and informal partnerships to help enhance the company's industry presence and build out the solution ecosystem. In 2021, Catherine moved over to lead the Solutions Consulting team. She is charged with promoting the advancement of global payroll strategies and operations through open dialogue with clients and prospects around challenges, opportunities and approaches.

Prior to joining Safeguard Global, Catherine garnered 30+ years of experience in human capital and has worked as a practitioner, service provider and consultant around the world. Her experience focuses on strategy and execution of HR and payroll services through organizational alignment of systems, processes and delivery capabilities to help organizations drive operational efficiencies and effectiveness in their global HR and payroll services.

Catherine has been a member of APA since 2008, and joined the National Speakers Bureau in 2019. She also volunteers on the Strategic Payroll Leadership Committee, and has served on numerous other committees as well. She has lived and worked around the world, is a veteran of two expatriate assignments, and is a published author and frequent speaker on global strategy, service delivery and operations topics. She is active in a variety of professional organizations, holds a BA from Temple University and an MBA from Bentley University.
