

Susan Judah is in her third decade as a payroll professional. Susan has sat in every seat in a payroll department; however, currently she is the time and attendance administrator for the City and County of Denver.

Susan earned her CPP in 2004 and her SPHR in 2007. She's been an active member of the Denver Chapter Payroll Association since 2004, having been their Education Coordinator for 7 years and Government Liaison for 2 years. Susan has also been a member of the APA since 2004. As well as being a member of the National Speakers Bureau, she is a member of the Hotline Referral Service, the Strategic Payroll Leadership Task Force for Gov/Public Sector Payrolls, Certification Item Development Task Force, and the CHAMPS Committee. This year Susan will be rolling off the Board of Advisors as an advisor for Region 3.
