

Billy Meyerkorth, CPP is the owner and a consultant of his own firm, Billy Meyerkorth Consulting. He currently operates out of Kansas City, Missouri and he and his team offer their services nationwide. He recently transferred back to Kansas City from Los Angeles where he was the Manager of Human Resource Operations for Cetera Financial Group. He has more than twenty years of payroll management experiences including payroll, benefits, management, HRIS and building/maintaining relationships. His responsibilities today include managing his own firm while also consulting with companies for payroll implementations, management, Human Resources, process improvements to create operational excellence, systems review and overall compliance validation and assistance.

Billy is a very active member of the American Payroll Association. He was the APA's Payroll Man of the Year in 2010. He currently serves on the President's Board of Advisors and was past chairman of the CPP committee of the Certification Board. He is also a speaker/teacher on the National Speakers Bureau speaking at and teaching various payroll courses, webinars, Congresses, and various state-wide conferences. He serves on the Board of Contributing Writers writing numerous Paytech Magazine articles. He is also a member of the Certification Advisory Group and volunteers with the Hotline Referral Service and the CHAMPS chapter mentoring program. At the local level, in the past he has served various officer positions in APA's Greater Kansas City Chapter and was named the chapter's Payroll Person of the Year in 2004. He also has served various officer roles of the Midwest Regional Payroll Conference, including Director.

Billy is a very dedicated payroll professional with a true passion for his career. He has held the designation of Certified Payroll Professional since 2000.