

My name is Ana Murphy, CPP and I am the Payroll Director at Pep Boys located in Philadelphia, PA. I've been a payroll professional for 25 years and I've worked in several different industries. I've worked in the hospitality industry, advertising, and Pharma/Biotech. In my current role, I oversee payroll operations for over 17K employees. My department falls under the HR umbrella.

I have an MBA from DeVry University. I am a certified payroll professional for the second time. I let my certification lapse after receiving my CPP in 2005. Yes, I had to re-test! I took the CPP exam a second time in 2013. I really enjoy my profession. I am a payroll geek! In addition to be the president of the South Jersey Chapter, I am on the NJ Statewide Payroll Committee where I am the chairperson of the speakers sub-committee. I am a member of the National Speakers Bureau, the SPLTF, the best practices sub-committee and the Global Payroll committee. I've facilitated the PPE class for the APA for three years and most recently the Payroll Tax Forum class. I won one of the 2015 Education Grant awards. I wrote an article in PayTech magazine in February or March of 2015.

I live in Beverly, NJ with my husband, Ron and our 2 youngest of our 5 children. My work and school take up much of my time so don't have much time for my hobbies, reading, crafting, and crocheting.
