

Iggy Svoboda, CPP

Iggy Svoboda, CPP is a Senior Solutions Consultant for UKG, implementing HCM and payroll services for businesses all over the world. Her passion for payroll started over 20 years ago as a Payroll Clerk for a famous San Francisco hotel. The critical role a payroll professional has in the livelihood of all inspired her to build her skills and get involved in every aspect of payroll. By gaining experience in operations and technology, Iggy has transformed payroll activities by improving processes and implementing innovation, which has won several awards. Iggy's work as a payroll professional extends beyond her day job by contributing to the community through teaching, publications, podcasts, and by serving on the APA, where she was recently awarded the honor to participate on the Board of Advisors.
