

Larry White, CPP
Director of Payroll Training
American Payroll Association

Larry White, CPP is a Director of Payroll Training for the American Payroll Association. His responsibilities for over 14 years at APA include the presentation, development, and review of APA training courses.

Involved in the payroll industry for over 40 years as a practitioner, manager, director, and trainer, Larry has experience in the manufacturing and transportation industries and has also been a self-employed small business owner. In 2001, he was named Oklahoma Payroll Professional of the Year. He holds a degree in Communications from the University of Tulsa.

He served for seven years as an adjunct instructor for the Payroll Professional Learning Series at Tulsa Community College. He received APA's Meritorious Service Award in 1998 and was named APA's Payroll Man of the Year in 2005. Larry is enshrined in the American Payroll Association's Payroll Hall of Fame.